There will be a rousing turnout at the Eighth ward Republican meeting to-night to hear Secretary of War Stephen B. Elkins and Gen. W. F. Holls, of New York city. General Holls is a personal friend of the secretary and an able and distinguished German Republican orator. General Holls will speak in the mother tongue to the Germans, while Secretary Elkins, will, of course, entertain the English speaking portion of the audience, besides instructing those Germans who may understand Mr. Elkins' manner of giving expression to his thoughts. The speaking will take place at the corner of Forty-first and Jacob streets. Let the Eighth ward Republicans stir themselves and give those distinguished orators such a reception that they will remember it over afterwards with pleasure.

Mr. H. F. Behrens will preside, and the following gentlemen will act as vice presidents:

Dr. C. F. Ulrich, Maj. Wm. G. E. Goering, Council Kirbach, F. C. Meyer, F. L. Schenk, Alfred Stump, Jr., Prof. H. Schöckey, Dr. G. A. Meyer, Adolph Kautz, Sr., Adolph Kautz, Jr., Jacob Beter, Louis Miller, W. H. Gabe, Christian Ritz, George Lowers, Charles Meyer.

The Tariff Champions and Young Men's Republican Escort Club will meet at their hall at central Republican headquarters, Market street, this evening at 7 o'clock sharp, for the purpose of escorting the speakers to the place of meeting.

All other Republican clubs and Republicans are requested to join in the procession, which will move at 7 o'clock sharp.

Give the secretary a rousing reception, such as befits the dignity of the office he represents and his talents and statesmanship.

A DANDY TRIP

Outlined for the William L. Wilson Tariff Students Club.

The William L. Wilson Tariff Students have been offered a very pleasant outing on the Ohio River road, and it is very likely that they will decide to accept the proffer at a meeting of the club to be held this evening. The invitation is extended by ex-Senator Camden, and consists of a trip to Huntington, from that city to Charleston, and from there to Parkersburg and from there home. The boys are to be used as an escort to Adlai E. Stevenson in his hopeless pilgrimage through the state. They will be guests of Senator Camden, and the entire journey is not to cost them "one cent." If they decide to go they will leave next Friday.

CHARLESTON'S CELEBRATION.

A Great Civic Parade—Decorations, Music and Speech-Making.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligence.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Oct. 21.—The Columbus day parade by the children of the public schools and the secret and political societies of the city was the biggest thing of the kind ever seen in Charleston. Fully two thousand persons were in line, mostly school children, and the city was never so elaborately decorated with the national colors, as it was to-day. One of the most striking features of the exercises was the oration by Clarence Burdett. His delivery was clear and distinct, his gesture perfect, and all who saw and heard him were reminded of his honored father, Hon. W. L. Burdett, who was cut off in the heyday of his fame, and when the future held the brightest of possibilities before him.

Hon. George E. Price's address was a brief but appropriate one. He said it was fitting that all the people of this great country should assemble together to celebrate the discovery of America, the most important event in many respects in the history of the world. He pictured the condition of the continent 400 years ago, and contrasted it with its present condition, giving a brief history of the perseverance of Columbus and of the voyage of discovery and the final scene where land was discovered.

He then spoke of the many adventures that came to this new land, seeking gold which continued for 100 years and more, and after that the settlements of the colonists, their bravery and the spirit of freedom that they manifested and showed that from this sprang our government, and that under it we have grown to be the greatest nation on the globe by urging the boys.

THE DAY AT FAIRMONT.

The Old Mountain City Outdoes Herself. Great Patriotic and Industrial Display.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligence.

FAIRMONT, W. VA., Oct. 21.—A slight rain last night settled the dust and this morning opened with the town early astir, putting out bunting and various decorations for the celebration of Columbia Day. The old town fairly outdid herself in this line and very early the people commenced to gather for the opening exercises at 9 o'clock.

The program as laid out by the committee was carried out successfully, especially the trades display, which was something out of the ordinary run of such here. Following was the program:

9 o'clock—Appropriate exercises at the normal school and in all the public schools of Fairmont, Palatine and vicinity, consisting of music, recitations, historical sketches, poems, etc.

10:30 o'clock—Official programme in front of the school building (Old Normal), consisting of flag presentation, flag salute, music, etc. Oration, "The Meaning of Four Centuries," delivered by Mr. J. M. Seranage; the ode, written for the occasion, recited by Miss Charlotte Wilson. Pole-raising and flag salute in Palatine also.

11 o'clock—Grand historic, patriotic and industrial parade, participated in by the schools, civic organizations, merchants and tradesmen, under the direction of Mr. Joe P. Fleming, chief marshal. A most liberal estimate placed the number in the parade at over 2,500. Among that number were over one thousand children from the various schools. The crowd was immense, surely crowding the space allotted to them. In fact, it is conceded by those competent to judge that Fairmont never saw such a display nor such a crowd.

7 o'clock—Immense torch-light procession. 8 o'clock—Grand display of fire works on Hamilton's Hill.

THE BRIGGS CASE.

The Report of the Majority of the Committee—Interesting Discussion.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 21.—It was 10 o'clock when the Briggs discussion was resumed. When it was called up the moderator said the question was on the motion to strike out the recommendation in the majority report that the synod take no action on the Briggs complaint.

Chairman Miller of the judicial committee said: My position on this question is, I think, for the best interests of the church. In all justice let us adopt the majority report.

Dr. Sproule, of the minority, said that a majority of the members of the judicial committee favor the minority report, but say that they will stand by Dr. Miller, who has handed in the report. They have since expressed a fear to me that it was a mistake for the committee to make any recommendation. Prof. Willis J. Beecher, of Auburn seminary, said he saw no injustice in allowing the case to go back to the presbytery without action by the synod. He offered this substitute for both the minority and majority reports: "In the matter of the Briggs case the committee made the complainant to be in order, but recommend that it is inexpedient to take action at the present time, because the case, through the action of the general assembly and of the presbytery of New York, is again before the presbytery, and the complainants will have their remedy in their own hands. And in case the remedy there be found insufficient, they will afterwards have opportunity by appeal or complaint to bring the case before the synod."

Dr. Morling sustained the position taken in the Briggs complaint. Rev. L. B. Richards, of Stamford, N. Y., thought the synod should pass upon the constitutional questions involved in the complaint. The Rev. Dr. Melvaine favored action by the synod. Gen. Smith, of Pokeysie, said he thought it would be policy to adopt the majority report.

Elder Yearwood moved the previous question. The motion was put and lost. Dr. Beecher's substitute was then accepted by a vote of yes 122, nays 40. The substitute was then adopted as the report of the judicial committee.
